Moore—Stronach.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., July 29.—Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock there was celebrated at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. B. Stronach, on North Bloodworth Street, the marriage of Miss Ethel Jarvis Stronach and William B. Moore, of Waycross, Ga. The marriage service was pronounced by Dr. W. McC. White, of the First Presbyterian Church. The bride's sister, Miss Mary Stronach, was maid of honor, and James K. Stoker was best man. Acting as groomsmen were William and Donaldson Stronach, brothers of the bride. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Moore left for a trip North, after which they will be at home in Waycross, where Mr. Moore is a successful young business man. The bride is a daughter of the late Capt. A. B. Stronach, who was for many years a prominent merchant, and was an enthusiastic Confederate veteran, active in the affairs of the North Carolina division, and the North Carolina division, and the Cunited Confederate Veterans' Association of the Southern States. Here from a distance for the weddin, were: Mrs. George Wainwright Wilson and Mrs. 1J. J. Barefoot, of Swepsonville.

Charlottesville, Va., July 29.—Frank Moore, confessed murderer of his brother-in-law, Charles Clarke, of Morristown, Tenn., was taken back to Tennessee to-day by Chief of Police Cassell, of Morristown, and Sheriff Carriger, of Hamlin county, Moore, who returned without requisition papers, expressed regret at his failure to surrender.

The Tennessee officers stated that Moore's criminal record included three terms in the penitentlary, and that no since he was fifteen had a year passe since he was fifteen had a year passed in which he was not in jail. Once while attempting to escape on a guard's horse he was shot in the hip by an officer. It is also alleged that after shooting Clarke, Moore walked into his victim's house and robbed his own sister of what money she had, and also took from her Clarke's pistol.

Will Meet at Chapel Hill.

Dr. Joyner. State Superintendent of Public Instruction, announces that the annual session of the State Association of County Superintendents of Public Schools will be held at the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, August 30 to September 3. He says there have been sessions of the sasociation at Greensboro, the seat of the State Normal and Industrial College, in Raleigh, the seat of the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, and that it is fitting that it should now meet at the University of the State, in order that the county superintendents may come in touch with this great institution, its life and its work. University Inn will be headquarters for the county superintendents, and the ressions of the association will be in Gerrard Hall, the opening session to be Tuesday evening, August 30, at 8 o'clock.

Prominent Staunton Citizens Hurt in Accident-One May Die.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Staunton, Va., July 29.—W. G. Moffect, after about twenty hours, has not rallied from the shock and injuries sustained by him in an automobile wreck near Harrisonburg, which occurred shortly after midnight this morning. He had one leg crushed, and was probably internally injured. He was brought to a hospital here shortly after the accident, but the surgeons have not attempted an operation to relieve him, because of his weakened condition. His death is expected.

instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this especial man. The history ends just after election, and the 20,642 newspaper items found include everything from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated express. These have been mounted on torial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mounted on 3.200 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massive volumes. At the head of each item is the name and date of paper clipped from, this information having been put in with a book typewriter. The words thus inserted amount to 153,852.
